Earnings, Scheduling & Training

Starting pay is $25/hr with an increase to $30–$35/hr once you pass your second-week quality audit. Shifts are scheduled weekly via an internal dashboard and filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Most reps work between 20 and 35 hours per week. There are no required weekends, though weekend work is available. Training includes 3 self-paced learning modules and a 1-hour live walkthrough with a senior rep. Top performers are promoted to specialist roles with bonuses and mentorship options.

Your Shift in Action

Let's say you begin work at 8:30 AM. Your first chat comes from a customer who's unsure how to use their welcome promo code. You pull up their account and guide them to the correct link. Your next customer wants to cancel a recurring subscription—you walk them through the steps and offer an exclusive retention discount. You help someone else log into their member portal, resolve 18 total chats before your 1 PM break, and finish your shift at 2:30 PM with high satisfaction ratings and no unresolved tickets.
