Description

Google Jobs Remote No Degree Part-Time – Become a Live Chat Support Agent, Earning $25-$35/hr

Job Overview

Are you interested in working for a global tech leader without needing a college degree? As a Remote Live Chat Support Agent, you can work part-time, earning $25-$35 per hour while providing customer support via live chat. This role is perfect for individuals looking for flexibility and the opportunity to work for a reputable company without a degree. You'll be assisting customers by troubleshooting issues, answering questions, and providing real-time support—all through a chat-based platform. No prior experience is necessary as full training will be provided.

This part-time role offers the flexibility to work when it suits your schedule, allowing you to balance work with other commitments. Whether you're a student, a stay-at-home parent, or simply looking for extra income, this job provides the opportunity to work for a well-known tech company while earning competitive pay.

Key Responsibilities

- Live Chat Support: Provide real-time assistance to customers through live chat, helping them navigate products and resolve issues.
- Troubleshoot Problems: Quickly diagnose and resolve customer issues, providing timely and accurate solutions.
- Document Each Interaction: Record the details of each customer conversation to ensure continuity of service and to assist with any necessary follow-up actions.
- Team Collaboration: While working remotely and part-time, you'll still be part of a larger team. Regular communication with your remote team members will ensure you're aligned on best practices and customer service standards.
- Ongoing Training: Participate in regular training sessions to stay updated on the latest products, tools, and customer service techniques.

Who You Are

- Excellent Written Communicator: You have a talent for explaining complex issues clearly and concisely through written text.
- Problem Solver: You enjoy the challenge of diagnosing issues and offering real-time solutions to customer problems.
