Description

“No Experience, No Problem” Isn’t Just a Tagline Here – It’s How You Get Hired

You searched “jobs near me remote no experience” because you want something real. A legit way to earn from home, without a degree, without prior work history, and without needing to live in a major city. This is that job. We’re hiring Entry-Level Remote Chat Agents for a 100% online support role. You’ll make $25–$35/hour, work on your terms, and never have to talk on the phone or meet face-to-face. Just you, your keyboard, and a clear path forward.

The Opportunity

You’ll be part of a distributed team that helps customers solve everyday problems through written support—things like tracking orders, changing passwords, or managing subscriptions. You won’t need to talk to customers. You won’t be expected to know everything. You’ll follow clear guides, use prewritten replies, and escalate what you can’t handle.

What You’ll Do

Log into your dashboard and handle incoming live chat messages
Use quick-reply tools and knowledge base articles to respond fast
Answer questions related to orders, billing, accounts, and service
Log each conversation and tag complex issues for review
Manage multiple conversations at once while staying calm and helpful
Stick to the script, or personalize if you know the answer—it’s flexible

First-time job seekers or career switchers
People with no experience but strong communication skills
Parents, caregivers, students, or part-timers looking for remote flexibility
