About the Company

This opportunity comes from a fast-scaling educational technology company that delivers online training programs and tools to thousands of users worldwide. The company is actively expanding its service infrastructure and is now hiring for part time remote live chat jobs to support a growing base of subscription users who expect fast, clear, and written-only assistance. No phone calls, no Zooms—just live chat support through structured workflows.

What You'll Do

- Handle incoming live chat messages using saved replies and internal knowledge base
- Assist customers with password resets, subscription cancellations, billing updates, and discount applications
- Escalate technical issues to backend support teams as needed
- Log and tag all interactions accurately in the ticketing system
- Use tone-checked templates and maintain brand-appropriate written responses

Why This Role is a Great Fit

- Perfect for people balancing school, another job, or caregiving
- No phone work—strictly chat-based communication
- Weekly pay that's dependable
- Real experience in digital communication, no experience required
- Full flexibility: morning, afternoon, evening, and weekend shifts

Requirements

- Laptop or desktop with Chrome browser
- Reliable internet (10 Mbps minimum)
- Typing speed of 45+ WPM
- Good written English and a calm demeanor under pressure
- Able to follow step-by-step chat scripts and workflows

Schedule part-time blocks: 4 to 6 hours per shift. Pick your own days—minimum 12 hours per week.

Training & Onboarding Timeline

- 2-hour self-paced onboarding with chat system overview
- Guided practice using mock tickets
- First live shift includes coaching and feedback
- Paid work typically begins 3–5 days after training

What a Typical Shift Looks Like

You log on at 3 PM and within a few minutes begin assisting customers: one needs to update billing details, another can't access their premium content, and a third asks how to apply a discount code. Everything is resolved using chat scripts—clear, quiet, and totally phone-free.

What Agents Are Saying

"This job is a lifesaver. I do my shifts after class, and the fact that I don't have to talk to anyone makes it perfect." – Julia M., St. Louis, MO

"I work weekends only and still make enough to cover my expenses. Great system and solid pay." – Andre V., London, UK
