Remote Jobs Near Me No Degree | $25-$35/Hour Remote Customer Chat Agent

Description

Find a Remote Job Near You That Pays Well—No Degree Needed, No Experience Required, Just Results That Speak for Themselves

If you've been endlessly searching "remote jobs near me" and hitting walls because you don't have a degree, this might be the breakthrough you've been waiting for. We're hiring Customer Chat Agents who work entirely from home—serving national clients while earning a competitive $25–$35 per hour. You don't need to go back to school. You don't need to move. You don't even need experience. We're looking for motivated individuals ready to help customers and earn income from their own space, wherever "near me" happens to be.

What This Job Really Is

It's simple: you'll be chatting with customers online to answer questions, solve problems, and make their experience smoother. No phone calls. No face-to-face support. Just fast-paced, real-time messaging with people who need help—and you'll be trained to give them the answers. You'll be using platforms like Intercom, LiveChat, or Zendesk (don't worry—we teach you everything), and you'll represent brands that actually care about customer service. This is the kind of job that doesn't ask where you went to school—it asks how well you treat people and how quickly you can learn.

Who Succeeds Here

This job is built for people who like structure but hate offices. If you've worked retail, food service, or hospitality, you'll probably thrive here. If you've never had a job but you're a fast typer and a good communicator, you'll thrive here too. It's great for stay-at-home parents, career changers, recent grads, military spouses, or anyone who needs flexibility and a fair paycheck.

What You'll Be Doing Each Day

Chat-Based Support

Communicate with customers exclusively via live chat. No phone duties. You'll help with billing issues, account logins, order tracking, refunds, basic troubleshooting, and other common questions.

Multitasking

Handle several conversations at once. You'll learn how to manage time, juggle tasks, and still keep your replies accurate and professional.

Using Internal Tools

Leverage the company's knowledge base, chat templates, and customer history to provide informed answers. You'll learn how to get to the right answer fast.

Documenting Every Interaction

Each chat needs to be logged in detail—what the customer asked, what you advised, and what the final outcome was. This helps improve service and keeps the team informed.

Requirements (You Already Qualify If You...)

- Type 40+ words per minute and write clearly
- Can stay focused in a remote environment
- Have basic computer and internet navigation skills
- Are dependable, punctual, and eager to learn
- Have a quiet, distraction-free space to work
- Can work a minimum of 15 hours per week

Equipment You'll Need

- A desktop or laptop computer with updated software
- High-speed internet (minimum 10 Mbps download, 5 Mbps upload)
- Headset optional but helpful
- Comfortable desk setup so you can stay productive during shifts
- We do not support Chromebook or tablet devices for chat work

What You Get in Return

- Hourly pay between $25 and $35 depending on performance, shift, and tenure
- Paid onboarding and live training support—get paid to learn
- Flexible work hours and ability to set your own availability
- Zero commute—you're working from wherever you live
- Monthly performance bonuses and incentive rewards
- Optional full-time or part-time scheduling available
- Opportunities for advancement into team lead or QA roles
- Remote community culture with Slack channels, support groups, and virtual meetups
- Access to work-from-home gear discounts and optional benefits for full-timers

A Day in the Life

You start your day by logging into your dashboard and reviewing any notes from the overnight shift. Your chat queue starts rolling in—one customer is asking about a return, another can't log into their account, and a third is wondering about a recent charge. You reply clearly and quickly, referencing internal notes and macros. After an hour or two, you take a break, stretch, grab a snack, and jump back in. Toward the end of your shift, you notice a customer left positive feedback, and your manager drops a quick “Nice job!” message in Slack. You close out your sessions, update your tickets, and end your workday without having to change out of your hoodie.

Why This Role is So Popular

We know what people want from a remote job: real pay, real training, real respect, and the freedom to live life on their terms. This position gives you all of that without barriers like college degrees or years of experience. If you’re looking for a job “near you” that doesn’t require you to leave your house, you’ve found it. We’re one of the few companies hiring nationwide while still prioritizing local applicants in high-demand areas.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I work from any city or state?

Yes. While the job is remote, we give priority to applicants in active hiring zones. You’ll see the list during the application process.

Is there a schedule, or can I set my hours?

Both. You can submit your availability weekly. We work with you to build a consistent schedule based on your preferred shifts.

What kind of training is involved?

You’ll go through a self-paced online course with interactive simulations, then work with a mentor during your first few live shifts. Training is paid.

Do I need to be available full-time?

No. You can start part-time and grow into more hours. Many of our top agents began with just 10–20 hours per week.

Are there growth opportunities?

Absolutely. We promote from within and offer paths to shift lead, training coordinator, QA reviewer, and more.

How often do I get paid?

We offer biweekly direct deposit. Bonuses are paid monthly. There’s no lag time—you’re paid for all your hours on time, every time.

Are there any fees or purchases?

Nope. No fees. No gimmicks. Just a real job with real pay.

How to Apply

This opportunity is open to people all across the U.S. If you’re tired of job listings that require degrees or five years of experience for an entry-level role, this is the opposite. We believe in work that works for real people. Hit the Apply Now button to begin your application. It only takes a few minutes to get started—and you could be earning $25–$35/hour from your own living room before the month is over.
