Description

Job Title: Remote Overnight Data Entry Assistant

Compensation: $25-$35/hour

Location: Work from Anywhere – Fully Remote

Schedule: Overnight shifts (8 PM–6 AM local time, 15–30 hours/week)

Experience Required: None

Education Required: No degree required

Position Overview

Our client is hiring Remote Overnight Data Entry Assistants to help process, organize, and tag content during non-business hours. If you've been searching for "remote night shift jobs," this is a legitimate work-from-home opportunity that lets you work independently overnight while earning a stable hourly wage. You'll work through assigned data tasks, file organization, and structured documentation uploads with no calls or meetings required. Full onboarding and SOPs are provided.

What You'll Be Doing

You'll receive data entry tasks via dashboard and complete each assignment overnight, with clear guidelines and formatting instructions provided.

Key Responsibilities:

- Inputting text and numerical data from documents into system dashboards
- Checking and formatting spreadsheet entries
- Tagging and labeling uploaded content according to internal naming protocols
- Reviewing data for errors and correcting inconsistencies
- Uploading completed files and submitting nightly summaries
- Flagging any irregularities to the internal review team

Who Should Apply

- Night owls looking for quiet, independent work
- People with strong attention to detail and basic computer skills
- Applicants seeking legitimate overnight remote jobs
- Individuals who prefer written-only tasks and no client communication
- Beginners wanting reliable income and a clear path to grow into data, QA, or support roles

Minimum Requirements:

- Laptop or desktop computer
- Reliable internet (10 Mbps minimum)
- Typing speed of 40 WPM or more
