Beginner App Testing Jobs Remote Work from Home Earn $25-$35/hr

Description

Jobtacular.com is looking for remote workers who are interested in earning money by testing popular messaging apps like WhatsApp. We believe that work should be accessible and flexible for everyone, regardless of their location or personal circumstances. Our goal is to connect job seekers with employers who value their skills and can offer them a fulfilling work experience.

We believe that remote work is the future of work, and we want to be at the forefront of this revolution. We specialize in remote and work-from-home job opportunities, and we're always looking for talented individuals who share our vision. If you're interested in earning money by testing messaging apps like WhatsApp, we want to hear from you!

About the Job

As a product tester, your main task is to test the functionality of messaging apps. The companies we work with need ordinary people to use their apps and provide honest feedback on how to improve them. You will be required to test various aspects of the app and provide a brief report (200-300 words) about your experience.

This job is perfect for anyone who is looking for a flexible and beginner-friendly work opportunity. You don't need any previous experience in product testing to apply for this job. All you need is a smartphone or tablet that is compatible with WhatsApp and a minimum of 5-20 hours of free time each week.

Job Description

Your responsibilities as a product tester will include:

- Testing the functionality of messaging apps like WhatsApp.
- Providing honest feedback on how to improve the app.
- Writing a brief report (200-300 words) about your experience.
- Communicating with the company you're working for via email or chat.

Pay

The pay for this job is $25 – $35 per hour. You will be paid based on the number of messages you send and the quality of your feedback. The more messages you send, the more money you can earn. At $5 per message, your take-home pay can begin to add up quickly!
